Understanding the Ecomap: An ecomap is a structural diagram of a client’s most important relationships with people, groups, and organizations; and identifies resources available in clients’ community. Social workers use this tool to show the coalition of resources that seem likely to affect a client’s efforts to achieve personal goals.

Instructions: Fill in connections where they exist.
Indicate nature of connections with a descriptive word or by drawing different kinds of line; ____________ for strong; - - - - - - - - - for weak, // // // // // // for stressful.
Draw areas along lines to signify flow of energy, resources, etc. → → → → → → → →
Identify significant people and fill in empty circles as needed.
Understanding the EcoMap: An ecocomap is a structural diagram of a client's most important relationships with people, groups, and organizations; and identifies resources available in clients' community. Social workers use this tool to show the coalition of resources that seem likely to affect a client's efforts to achieve personal goals.

Instructions: Fill in connections where they exist.
Indicate nature of connections with a descriptive word or by drawing different kinds of line;
- - - - - - - for strong; / / / / / / / / / for weak.
Draw areas along lines to signify flow of energy, resources, etc.
Identify significant people and fill in empty circles as needed.